Property Description

Estepona continues to establish itself as one of the most in-demand destinations on the Costa del Sol, and the new Looa development is another example of how the area is evolving towards a more modern and premium style of living.

The project combines contemporary architecture, high quality finishes and a strong focus on lifestyle, all within one of the fastest growing areas of the Costa del Sol.

Modern buyers are no longer simply searching for a property in the sun. They want design, comfort, amenities and long term value, and developments like Looa are being created specifically around that demand.

Located in Estepona, one of the most popular coastal areas for international buyers in Spain, the development offers...
